

School of Hospitality and Tourism now a proud Wine & Spirit Education Trust (WSET) provider

Starting this Fall, the School of Hospitality and Tourism is proud to be offering the Level 3 Wine & Spirit Education Trust (WSET) Award course through Continuing Education. WSET is an internationally-recognized accreditation/certification program that we are excited to provide to our students. Don't miss this opportunity! Register here. Watch for more WSET courses coming soon. Please note: Sommelier graduates will receive a $200 rebate on course fees.

The Level 3 WSET qualification:

- is designed to give a thorough understanding of the principal wines and spirits of the world and their commercial importance in the world's market
- will assist those who are required to make professional evaluations of wines and spirits with regard to their quality and commercial value
- provides the in-depth product knowledge required to underpin job skills and competencies
- will enable holders to describe the characteristics of the principal wines and spirits of the world and give information on the key factors influencing style, quality and value

Qualification holders will consequently be in a position to advise management, to answer customer queries authoritatively, and to make informed selections of wines and spirits in a variety of situations.
